A NASHVILLE CHRISTMAS

December 2-4, 2019

(Monday-Wednesday)

SIGN UP BY OCTOBER 1ST!

The Gaylord Opryland Resort is beautifully decorated during Christmas. There are over 5 million Christmas lights on the property, and ornaments hang from the sky in the garden area. There is no way to describe how beautiful this resort is during the season. After we check into the Gaylord Opryland Resort we will enjoy our reserved seats at the Opryland Hotel's Country Christmas Dinner Show featuring Trace Adkins. Good food and great entertainment! Tomorrow, breakfast is on your own before we meet for a Delta boat ride through the resort. Then we walk over to ICE! Be sure to wear a coat to stay warm as you walk through this building full of ice sculptures. From the Nativity Scene and Angels to the themed carvings there is something amazing to see at every turn. There is even an ice slide... do you dare slide down it? The theme of ICE this year is "A Christmas Story" so it is sure to have some really fun carvings. For lunch there will be free time and shopping on your own at the Opry Mills Mall. We will return to our hotel mid-afternoon to rest up for our supper at Blake Shelton's new restaurant Ole Red! Our trip would not be complete without going to The Grand Ole Opry. Our last morning in Nashville, breakfast is on your own at the hotel. We will load the motorcoach and head out of Music City but on the way we will visit The General Jackson Showboat for a Riverboat lunch cruise. INCLUDES:

THE GRAND OLE OPRY AT THE RYMAN AUDITORIUM

December 6-7, 2019 (Friday-Saturday)

SIGN UP BY OCTOBER 7, 2019!

It's a beautiful time of the year in Nashville, TN. After checking into the spectacular Gaylord Opryland Resort (traditional rooms), we head downtown. Supper tonight is at Café Lula at the Ryman Auditorium. After a delicious meal we head to our reserved price level one seating for the Grand Ole Opry show. 93 Years of entertaining folks around the world! After the show we head back to the hotel. If you choose to explore the hotel this evening, the garden is beautiful at night. Saturday breakfast is "on your own" and our luggage will be picked up early so we meet for a ride on The Delta boats through the man made hotel river at the Resort. Then we will walk over for our self-guided tour of "ICE" put on your parka to stay warm as you walk through and be amazed by the many beautiful ice sculptures. The theme this year is "A Christmas Story!" Maybe you will even like to ride the ice slide? What fun! Then we will board the bus for the Opry Mills Mall for some shopping and lunch on your own. There is a food court and several different restaurants to choose from. There is also plenty of room on the motorcoach for your Holiday purchases. After lunch and time on your own we will return to GA. We might stop at Russell Stover's Candy Store on the way back home.
